The Caller

The Wisdom of You(th)

“Let no one despise your youth, but set the believers an example in speech and conduct, in love, in faith, in purity.” 1 Tim. 4:12

These are the Apostle Paul’s words of advice to Timothy as he “flies solo” in ministry while Paul is away. “Until I arrive give attention to the public reading of Scripture, to exhorting, to teaching” (v. 13), he continues.

These are the words of an older pastor to a pastor in training—we might call Timothy an “intern.” They are wise words of encouragement. Words that acknowledge that Timothy is a novice. Words that I could well share with our new Intern, Jake—whom I’m sure is very aware of the freshness of his calling.

I lift up this exchange between Paul and Timothy to remind us all about the calling we have corporately accepted in receiving an Intern. And while we are now in our second year doing this ministry, we, like Timothy, are just learning. We are a teaching congregation, who is accompanying our Interns on a journey of self-discovery, spiritual growth, and nurture. And we not only have much that we can continue to learn about hosting an Intern, we have much to learn from Jake. Because age doesn't bring wisdom, the Spirit does.

*Age doesn't bring wisdom.
The Spirit does.*

But while Jake comes to us relatively inexperienced, he brings with him gifts, a temperament, and instruction that will shape our life together. He also brings a relationship with his wife, Mandy, that will inform his ministry and our life together. We will be called in the next months to listen for and encourage Mandy's gifts as well as Jake's. Jake and Mandy will, for the next 12 months, pray and worship with us, they will sit at the table with us to laugh and perhaps cry, they will listen and speak. May we soak up the rich treasure that they are giving us by entrusting themselves to us.

Jake will be given some pretty clear expectations about what he needs to accomplish over his year with us: Luther Seminary and ELCA Church-wide put the Internship Team and I to the task of helping Jake to develop the gifts he has, to build skills in areas where he lacks expertise, and to effectively manage the tasks of ordained ministry. Quarterly we are expected to provide electronic evaluations about his effectiveness to the Seminary.

The Internship Team and I are not the only Calvary members involved in the process of equipping Jake for ministry however. Each of you who attend worship, participate in Forum, bring your children to church, engage in Bible studies or other ministries of the church, have an opportunity to encourage and shape Jake's ministry for the better. So, to conclude this article, I want to list a handful of ways you can support Jake this year:

Invite Jake and Mandy to dinner soon at your home or, if you don't want to scrub the toilet, take Jake out for lunch. The Intern needs to be welcomed by you personally. More important, he needs to hear your faith story, and know who he's preaching to, ministering with, and caring for.

Fill out a Sermon Feedback sheet—more than once—when he preaches. Each time Jake preaches he needs feedback from the congregation about how he's doing (does he make sense, is his delivery effective, is his theology sound). Sure, he will get feedback from me, but he needs to hear from you. When an Internship Team member approaches you on any given Sunday and asks you to write down your impressions, please say 'Yes,' and then return the sheet to that same person that day. (Incomplete sentences are welcomed, but relatively coherent thoughts will be appreciated.)

Say Yes when Jake asks to come visit you. Making cold calls to unfamiliar new people is totally intimidating—even for the most outgoing Intern. Say 'Yes' to Jake dropping by.

Stop by Jake's Office to introduce yourself and talk. Approach him after worship and chat. Remind him of your name when you are finished talking. (He has 160 names to memorize and you only have his name to memorize.)

Invite Jake to join your ministry group for a meeting or social time. Your Intern needs to know what you are up to, how you use your gifts and skills to further the mission of the church. And, hey, it's just fun to hang with you. You're interesting people.

Ask Jake to visit you at your workplace.

If you can swing it, and your boss is cool with it, let him see what you do when you're not at Church. Your workplace is where you live out Christ's love in the world. What a great opportunity for Jake to experience that.

Respond gently. If you can't hear Jake when he prays, if he makes a statement that you don't understand or somehow offends you, let him know. But be gentle and good-humored. He wants to learn from you; and that will be a lot easier if his defenses aren't up because you were less than kind.

So you see, we all have marching orders for the next 12 months. We're not quite novices, having accompanied Carrie through her internship this past year. But we're also wise enough to know that we can always learn something new about this Internship Process with each new Intern who is entrusted to us.

Serving Christ with you,

Pastor Lori

Getting to Know Jake

Jake and Mandy met in college at Eastern Washington University near Spokane, WA. Mandy was a Recreation Management major and currently works for Special Olympics of Washington. They got married almost two years ago and just moved to Fife from Portland where Jake was attending seminary. Both of their families are from the Puyallup area and both have two siblings. They are excited to start at Cavalry and look forward to meeting everyone.

We asked for a few more details:

Birthday:	January 24, 1989
Fav. Color:	blue
Food:	Thai, yellow curry
Starbucks:	Americano
Coffee:	with just a splash of cream
Soda:	Coca Cola
Chocolate:	Caramellos
Dessert:	raspberry or blackberry pie
Teams:	Seahawks, Mariners

Jake likes playing sports, board games, reading, and trying new restaurants.

Outreach

Red Wagon

With school starting across the community our Red Wagon this month will be for school supplies! Specifically, we are collecting school supplies for Thomas Jefferson High School. Calvary assisted them last year and they were so appreciative! Being prepared for school is so important no matter what the financial situation is in a student's home life. The student population is over 4,000. Please consider the following:

- ♦ Backpacks
- ♦ Folders (solid colors, not gender specific)
- ♦ Dividers
- ♦ Erasers
- ♦ Highlighters
- ♦ Calculators (regular & graphing)
- ♦ Markers
- ♦ Post-It notes
- ♦ Spiral notebooks
- ♦ Composition books
- ♦ Pencil pouches
- ♦ Pencils & pens

The wagon is scheduled to roll on Sunday, September 11th. Please consider a supply donation and/or a monetary contribution. Financial gifts will be used to purchase additional supplies. Thank you on behalf of the students at Thomas Jefferson! Go Raiders!!

Reach Out Update

Reach Out shelters – both men’s and women’s – will open October 1 and run through March 31. We are anticipating that both shelters will be running at capacity. The Women’s Shelter will be at Good Shepherd Episcopal Church all 6 months while the men’s shelter will be hosted by St. Columba’s (October & March), New Community (November), St. Vincent’s (December) and here at Calvary (January & February). The program is run by donations and grants which pay mainly for the staffing provided by Catholic Community Services. The balance is provided by volunteers (meals and host sites). The Annual Fundraiser Breakfast will be held at The Christian Faith Center on Tuesday, September 27. It begins at 6:30 A.M. with a silent auction, followed by a program highlighting the needs and successes of this program. You can go online to purchase tickets at ccsww.ejoinme.org/reachoutfw. Calvary will be providing a quilt and pillow for this auction. (See photo above.)

Some current information on homelessness in our area:

- ♦ The January count of unsheltered homeless showed an increase from 105 in 2015 to 263 in 2016 – just in Federal Way (this does not count those in Reach Out shelters).
- ♦ The count in selected areas of King County went from 3,772 (2015) to 4,405 (2016).
- ♦ If you are working at minimum wage ($9.47) you need to work 78 hours/week to rent a modest 1 bedroom apartment at fair market value – if it can be found.
- ♦ For every $100 increase in rent in an area like Federal Way, homelessness goes up 39%.

Intergenerational Ministries

Sunday Faith Education

During the school year, Calvary offers faith education classes for all ages at 10:15 A.M. on Sundays.

- ♦ Sunday, September 11th, all ages will participate in the Raise the Roof celebration in the Social Hall. (There will be cake!)
- ♦ Sunday, September 18th, Learning in Motion, Confirmation, and the High School Group resume.

Wednesday Night Confirmation

There will be a parent and student gathering from 6:30 to 8:00 P.M. on Wednesday, September 14th. Regulation Confirmation classes will begin on Wednesday, September 21st. Please note, because Confirmation students will be participating in the FLY Retreat on October 7th & 8th, there will be no Wednesday night Confirmation class on October 5th.

FLY Retreat

Calvary Lutheran & Christ Lutheran are joining forces to offer a youth retreat the first weekend of October. All students grades 6+ are invited to participate. We will carpool from Calvary. The Retreat will be held at Mason Lake. $30/kid includes food and transportation. This year's theme is body language, based on I & II Corinthians.

Please e-mail or call Rachel O'Reilly in the church office to confirm whether your student will be able to attend (YES) or unable to attend (NO). If you are interested in chaperoning, let us know!

Young Adult Ministries will get together on Sunday, September 18th at 12:30 P.M.
More details to come.

The next Coffee House will be held on Friday, October 21st. CYFM will be hosting Trick or Treating in the Ed Wing!

Our next family-friendly hike is on Sunday, September 25 at the Nisqually National Wildlife Refuge. We will carpool to the refuge to walk the sea-level (flat) trail. Entrance requires a fee of $3.00 per four adults. (Kids are free.) Unfortunately, no pets are allowed. (They don't want to scare the birds—of which there are many!) We hope to bring along a birding expert to help us identify the birds.

2015 Data for Comparison

2015 Actual Results

2015	January - June	July	Year to Date	2015 Total (Actual)	YTD % of Actual Total
Income	$209,128	$29,112	$238,240	$414,036	57.6%
Expenses	$214,831	$28,892	$243,723	$411,906	59.2%
Net Ordinary Income	($5,703)	$220	($5,483)

What's noteworthy?

Good news! At the end of July, we were operating “in the black,” with income exceeding expenses by $6,489.

We will need to maintain a surplus of this size in order to meet certain expenses that come at the end of the year. In particular, we pay an insurance premium of about $7,000 in December.

If you are planning to be away in coming months, consider developing a plan to keep up on your giving to help avoid extreme month-to-month income deviations. Using online giving (<http://www.calvaryfw.org/online-giving.html>) is one method that can be used to help you keep your giving current when you are away. It's easy to make either a one-time donation or to set up a recurring donation.

Thank you for your generous support to Calvary!
